Description

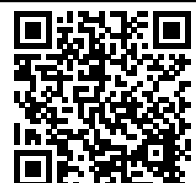

A stunning, fine and impressive antique 1.30 carat diamond, 15 carat yellow gold and platinum set pendant; part of our 1920s jewellery collection. This stunning, fine and impressive antique diamond pendant has been crafted in 15ct yellow gold with a platinum setting. The pierced and millegrain decorated frame has a curvilinear heart-shaped design to the apex, ornamented with sixteen pavé set diamonds, in a combination of Old European and eight-cuts. The design to the upper portion incorporates an impressive millegrain decorated collet set Old European round cut diamond. The pendant is further embellished with a feature collet set 0.40ct Old European round cut diamond surmounted by a secondary collet set diamond, all suspended from the lower border of a vertical linear drop. The linear drop articulates from the heart-shaped frame, embellished with seven pavé eight cut diamonds. The pendant suspends from a 15ct yellow gold 17.5' chain via two ring loop attachments to the upper border of the design, securing with a hallmarked sheath fastening. This tongue of the clasp is hallmarked with the 14ct gold mark (14K) and the pendant, including the chain, has been independently appraised...
