Description

A fine Mid Georgian silver ladle of good large size. The ladle is beautifully designed with a scallop shell bowl, long elegant stem and simple scroll finial end to the handle, known as the Onslow pattern. The piece is in very good condition with a minor dent to the bowl. There is a monogram engraved on the underside of the handle. There are a full and clear set of hallmarks for London, 1764, and makers mark WW. The whole is a wonderful example of Georgian flatware. Overall sizes in inches: 14 long 3 ¼ wide 2 ½ high
