Description

A lovely oak farmhouse table with a thick planked top standing on square legs joined by a central stretcher. The table has a lot of character and the patination is beautiful. There are many old historic woodworm holes and marks and signs of age and use but it is a solid and sturdy piece. It has been treated, cleaned and gently polished and displays beautifully. There have been some repairs and restorations over the years including some sections of planks but it all adds to the history and character of the piece. There is good leg room clearance of 24 1/2" (62cm) and the table would comfortably sit 4 or 6 with someone at each end. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
