Description

A pair of rectangular top tables crafted in the distinguished style of Gillows, featuring an impressive, distinctive profile and dating to circa 1900. Their elegant scale and highly detailed design make them a standout choice for a sophisticated living room, a principal sitting room, or a well-lit library corner. The pieces are defined by their stunning birds-eye maple veneer tops, which are divided into four panels and framed with intricate inlays of kingwood, satinwood, and ebony. The bright, luminous tones of the maple contrast beautifully with the finely turned solid ebony legs and stretchers, showcasing the craftsmanship and high-end cabinetry possibly attributed to Waring & Gillow.
