Description

An exquisite late 19th century wrought iron Venetian candle lantern with hand blown stained glass roundels, complete with the original iron hanging pole. The lantern has a door to the front opened by a latch, which reveals a small platform inside for a candle. Each glass roundel is hand blown and unique in colour and form. One roundel has been historically replaced with a small clear glass lens (please see photographs). The internal candle holder is slanted but still holds a tea light without issue. A one-of-a-kind piece of exceptional form and craftsmanship. Provenance: Belmont House, Ireland. Dimensions:- Height: 37cm Width (at widest point): 24cm Hanging length including iron hanging pole: 72cm Weight (excluding pole): 1.4 kg DELIVERY UK Mainland: FREE International Delivery: Please contact us for a shipping quote.
