Description

This is a large and splendid antique Victorian silver-plated Corinthian column table oil lamp now converted to electricity, Circa 1870 in date. This opulent antique table lamp features an elegant Corinthian Capital decorated with classical ornate foliage in the form of splendid acanthus leaves above a striking tapering and slender ebonised shaft. It stands on a large and weighted stepped square base, which features laurel decoration. Add an element of Greek Classical style to your home with this exquisite antique silver-plated table lamp. Condition: In excellent working condition having been beautifully cleaned and rewired, please see photos for confirmation. Dimensions in cm: Height 35 cm x Width 12 cm x Depth 12 cm Dimensions in inches: Height 1 foot, 2 inches x Width 5 inches x Depth 5 inches Corinthian capital It has been suggested that the foliage of the Greek Corinthian capital was based on the Acanthus spinosus, that of the Roman on the Acanthus mollis. The leaves are generally carved in two "ranks" or bands, like one leafy cup set within another. One of the most beautiful Corinthian capitals is that from the Tholos of Epidaurus (400 BC); it illustrates the ...
