Description

Superb mahogany hall or side table from the Georgian era, presented in perfect antique condition. This elegant piece features a dovetail-constructed drawer at each end of the frieze, with decorative brass handles that enhance its timeless charm. The table is supported by four sturdy square legs, accented with C-scroll details in the corners. As with all antiques, it carries imperfections; the top bears historical marks as shown in the photos, which only add to its authenticity and character. With its solid construction, rich colour, stunning wood grain, and beautiful patina, this table would make a stunning addition to any room.
