Description

1 Fine Dramatic Victorian British Oil Painting Historic Bamburgh Castle Armstrong Family Home Shipwreck Beached Follower of John Wilson Carmichael. Painted in the inspired style design follower of John Wilson Carmichael. Unsigned British school artist. Subject historical known marine view of Bamburgh castle, you are drawn to the focal central view of the castle perched on top of the cliff, it has a great defensive & commanding position of the seas & area. With rugged coastaline and hills in the distance on both flanks. Below are rather rough treacherous seas & waves bashing the shoreline. To the right in the sea just before the shore is a shipwreck that has become its latest victim. Its main mast is broken and missing, with bits of wreckage scattered and floating around. A large jagged rock is sticking up out of the sea further over. On the shore are 2 people possibly former crew members of the wrecked ship who are salvaging pulling on lines attached to cargo below the waterline. In the distance are other sailing ships struggling and listing on the water in the bad weather. Above a mix of grey storm clouds with lighter blue areas shining through. Oil on board. Set in a la...
