Description

Fabulous Islamic hexagonal table in excellent antique condition. The top is beautifully inlaid with intricate geometric patterns made from contrasting woods, ebony and bone creating an elegant mosaic effect. The base is equally captivating, with finely carved cut-out arches, turned legs, and an inlaid Star of David, adding a unique touch. While there are some minor imperfections, including inlay damage on the top as shown in the photos, the table remains in excellent condition, radiating a rich patina that reflects its history and character. Its compact size makes it perfect for displaying a lamp or a vase, blending both functionality and timeless decorative appeal
