Description

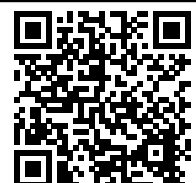

An early 20th century (circa 1920) highly decorative octagonal marble top centre table with painted base. This table consists of an octagonal marble top with central green marble hexagon with inlaid black and white geometric marble design radiating from the centre with white marble moulded edge, all creating a wonderfully decorative top. The painted base consists of a baluster column leading down to a hexagonal moulded collar with three scrolling acanthus carved supports on a tri-form platform base, the base finished in a taupe/grey painted tone. This table is in very good condition for age, of stable construction and can go straight into a home, an ideal addition to a hallway or conservatory. Size: Height: 29.25" / 74.25cm Width: 28" / 71cm Depth: 28.25" / 71.75cm
