Over three large drawers and two smaller drawers, with cockbeaded edges, inlaid diamond shaped escutcheons and turned wooden knobs (19th.c. replacements). Arranged around a graceful broad arched apron, also with a cockbeading to the edge. Oak panels to the sides which repeat the proportions of the drawer fronts. Raised on long tapering square legs front and rear. Oak drawer linings and back board. Repairs to the rear corners of the top, otherwise excellent condition with lovely honey coloured timber.
