Description

A 19th century copper jardiniere or planter with brass lion mask drop ring handles, and foliate repousse decoration to the body. The top of the planter has further decoration and a wavy rim. A handcut cramp/dovetail seam is visible on one side behind the handle and around the base. Condition: The rim is a little misshapen in places and there are various small marks to the surface in accordance with age and use. We haven't polished/cleaned this as we think it looks nice at it is, but it could be polished to a shine if desired. Free UK delivery - the item will be sent using a tracked and signed for service. If you would like a quote for delivery elsewhere please get in touch.
