Description

A stunning Edwardian diamond ring set in 18ct white gold, hallmarked on the outside of the shank as per French tradition, though this is rubbed. The cluster is encrusted with old cut diamonds, each with a lovely table and measuring approx 2 -2.5mm. The diamonds are a lovely colour and clarity, beautifully characterful being lovely old cut diamonds. In general estimated in situ colour I-J and clarity Si1-2. Total diamond content is just under 1ct. The ring head diameter is 15mm, the ring sits 7mm from the finger. The ring is a currently GB L, this can however be resized if required. In good condition with minimal wear commensurate of age. In one region the outer metal rim to the diamond cluster is slightly non uniform and sits 1mm away from its diamond, though there is no observed damage with this. A stunning original ring.
