Description

Such a delightful ring. The line of five gemstones are, unusually for a five stone ring, all of the same dimensions, meaning this will be a super easy ring to stack. The trio of impressively white old mine cut diamonds (graded E to F colour) are inter-spaced by a pair of glowing blood-red rubies. Each gem is secured in a 18k white gold coronet collet, leading to a slim and tapering 18k white gold shank. Accompanied by an independent jewellery report from IGR. Cut: Old mine cut diamonds and round cut rubies. Colour: The diamonds range from E to F. Clarity: The diamonds are SI1 to SI2 (all eye-clean). The rubies are eye-clean. Carat: Total approximate diamond weight of 1.14 carat, with approximately 0.68 carat of rubies. Circa: 1955. Size: P (UK) or 7 1/2 (US). Free sizing available. Measurements: From the edge of one outer diamond to the other is 21.4mm. The ring is 5.5mm at the widest point and sits 4.75mm from the finger. Weight: 4.50 grams. Metal: Stamped 18CT in side the band, indicating 18k white gold, and tested with a Niton DXL Precious Metal Analyzer to confirm. Item # 109413S151
