Description

A Victorian rosewood and burr-elm tilt-top specimen table, featuring an impressive, distinctive profile and exquisite material pairings. Its elegant scale and highly detailed design make it a standout choice for a sophisticated living room, a principal sitting room, or a well-lit library corner. The table is defined by its remarkable marquetry, showcasing tulip cross-banding, diamond stringing, fine bone diamond inlays, and a crisp, chamfered sycamore edge. The deep, rich tones of the outer frame contrast beautifully with the striking figuring of the central burr-elm panel and the practical, ingenious design of the tilt-top mechanism, offering both extraordinary versatility and a sophisticated touch of historic charm. The piece is in excellent showroom condition. It has been beautifully preserved and is ready for immediate use and placement in the home. Dimensions: * Height: 75 cm * Depth: 76 cm
