Description

Heals of London 1920's Teak Garden Dining Set A very good antique teak garden dining table and chairs by Heals of London around 1920. Made in solid teak timbers taken from decommissioned English battleships and made by Castles of London the ship beakers for Heals. A great set for smaller gardens, courtyards or balconies as the four dining chairs fit snugly under the table to form a neat cube when not in use. The table and four chairs are all very solid and complete, two of the chairs are slightly paler as they have been used in a conservatory for years. Complete with the Castles of London makers label. Dimensions Height: 73cm (28.97") Width: 96cm (38.10") Depth: 96cm (38.10")
