Description

A lovely wingback armchair dating from the early to mid 20th Century. It has traditional raised shaped wing sides, scrolling arms and it stands on square legs joined by a square H-stretcher. It has good large proportions and is a very comfortable chair with a feather-filled seat cushion. The chair is upholstered in a good quality cream floral fabric that compliments the chair well. The chair is in good overall condition and is strong and sturdy. There are a few general marks and small knocks around the legs but nothing detrimental. The upholstery is not new and there are light signs of wear and use but nothing untoward. It looks clean and fresh and is perfectly usable as it is or will serve as a good solid frame for recovering. The chair stands approximately 45" (114cm) high, 33" (84cm) deep and arm to arm the chair is 31" (79cm) wide. The seat is 18" (46cm) deep.
