Description

A large footed bowl dating from the 19th Century. It is a particularly large size and has been turned from one single piece of wood. It is excellent quality with beautiful raised turnings, incised line decoration and a small line of red painted decoration. It is a very tactile piece and it has developed a beautiful rich patina with a lovely colour. It is in good solid order with no major damages. There are some minor signs of historic worm in the base which has been treated as a precaution. A very decorative piece and also a very usable piece - the perfect size for a large fruit bowl in a country kitchen. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK Delivery £15
