Description

A Victorian oak library table featuring a rectangular top with an oxblood leather inset and gold tooling. The table includes six drawers in total, three on each long side, each fitted with brass knobs. Raised on turned legs with original castors, this table combines sturdy construction with classic period style. Item Ref; M-5953 . DIMENSIONS: Height - 73cm / Width - 151cm / Depth - 92.5cm / Seat Height - 57cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition overall, with some signs of age. There is surface wear, including age-related marks and scratches throughout. The leather surface shows some staining, and there is historic woodworm to the top that has been treated. Additionally, there is splitting to one of the corners, but the piece remains solid and functional. Our experienced carpenter meticulously inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection. This ensures that every piece you purchase from us is ready to be seamlessly incorporated into your home. To provide you with a comprehensive understanding of the item's condition, we kindly request that you take a moment to thoroughly review all the accompanying photos.
