Description

A Welsh dresser and rack of unusually small proportions, having a graduated plate rack sitting into well-shaped shoes. The three-drawer base with four square-section legs leading to an open potboard, made from a single piece of pine. A very well-constructed dresser having dovetailed drawers, joints pegged throughout, and the slightly over-the-top feature of four back legs. Of a fabulous rich colour associated with dense Welsh oak. Excellent condition, having just later handles. Circa 1780.
