Description

A good example of a small sterling silver cream jug with a pointed pouring spout and angular handle. It has an attractive hand beaten planished finish giving it a distinct arts and crafts style. It is clearly hallmarked for London, 1905 and the maker Samuel Jacob. It weighs approximately 66g. It is in good condition for its age. There are some faint surface marks and some minor dinks but no other major damages and overall it displays well. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK Delivery £6 Rest of the World £25
