Description

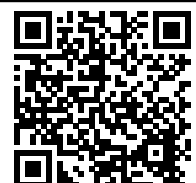

A superb example of a silver handled walking stick cane. This wonderful piece dates from the late 1910s and is fitted with a detailed Swans head crook handle, in solid silver. The Swan is beautifully modelled, with feathered details to the head, a shaped beak and charming glass eyes. The neck is decorated with a geometric repoussé pattern and has a large vacant shield shaped cartouche to the front. There is a hallmarked silver ferrule and the gently tapering cane retains the original brass and steel ferrule to the bottom. An excellent example of a collectable item, with a practical use. Dimensions below. Postage and packing :- £16.00 UK £28.00 Europe £35.00 Outside Europe Condition :- Excellent, with no dents or splits to the silver. Just light wear, commensurate with age and use. The proportions of the cane lends it to being suitable for ladies. Hallmarks :- Ferrule marked - Readable with loss to the makers mark. Swans head unmarked - tests as silver. Date :- London 1919. Length - 87 cms Width - 9.5 cms Depth - 1.8 cms.
