Description

A beautiful example of early 18th-century craftsmanship, this dark solid oak dresser is rich in character and history. Featuring three generously sized drawers, it boasts its original patina and a deep, warm tone that only centuries-old oak can achieve. Each drawer is adorned with period-style pear drop brass handles, and the dresser stands on sturdy turned front feet typical of the era. The piece has been well cared for over the years, showing signs of age that add to its timeless charm without compromising its structural integrity. Perfect for a traditional interior or as a striking statement in a more modern setting, this dresser offers both aesthetic appeal and practical storage. Materials: Solid Oak Age: c.1700 Dimensions: H: 83cm W: 182cm D: 48cm
