Description

A beautiful and rare Scottish antique silver and agate circular brooch. It was made in Scotland around 1880 from unhallmarked silver and Montrose agates. This type of brooch was made popular by Queen Victoria on her time at Balmoral Castle. The brooch is in excellent condition with no damage or repairs. It has a typical Victorian "C" clasp for the elongated pin and a loop for attaching a safety chain if required. WEIGHT; 28 grams approximately. Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, card over the phone, PayPal or Klarna. Using Klarna payments can be split over three months
