Description

A late c.18th George III period, mahogany inlaid, bow front chest of drawers. This well proportioned chest of drawers, with bow front top with edge stringing. Bank of four full width drawers all graduated in height, with cock beaded edges, original oval plate brass handles, escutcheons, and locks. Moulded base edge and raised on original ogee bracket feet. Pine drawer linings. In good working condition, and presents very well. It has been through our workshop and been sensitively serviced, thoughtfully cleaned and waxed, and now is very much ready for use. Dimensions: This chest measures approximately 105 cm (41.375") tall, 126 cm (49.5") wide, and 62 cm (24.375") deep. Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This chest of drawers is in an overall good condition, commensurate with its age, and is structurally sound and sturdy. Some marks and blemishes in keeping with age and use. Original handles and escutcheons, two locks have been replaced. All drawers run well. No loose joints. There are a few historic old worm holes to the back and bottom pine dust board, which as a matter of precaution have been treated, and in no way affect the ...
