Description

A delightful carved circular side table crafted by Japanese fishermen, imported and retailed by Liberty and Co around 1905 in the 'Eastern Bazaar' section of their shop in Regent Street in London. In excellent original condition with a deep rich waxed finish with a circular top and undertier with carved lotus leaf decoration and splayed carved legs. It measures 28 inches high, 18 inches wide and 18 inches deep. A really elegant piece of furniture that would grace a period or contemporary setting and could serve as a lamp table, for a piece of sculpture or for a large display of flowers.
