Description

A late 19thC French brass photo frame c1880. This photo frame features skilled craftsmanship. It is surmounted with a decorative brass garland and laurel wreath. The front of the frame bears a design of leafy branches, against a ladder background. And further, the sides bear a continuous design of entwined circles against a ladder background. The back is solid brass, with an easel stand. The back pulls down to enable the photo to be placed. All the detail proves the quality. It is in excellent condition. (Obviously the antique photo inside can be changed.)
