Description

A stunning, fine and impressive vintage 2.73 carat diamond and platinum dress ring; part of our diverse vintage diamond rings collection. This stunning, fine and impressive vintage cocktail ring has been crafted in platinum. The substantial, fluted design is ornamented with an impressive central six-claw set 1.18ct transitional modern brilliant round cut diamond. The pierced decorated design is embellished with multiple curvilinear arrangements, incorporating a total of forty-four pavé set transitional modern brilliant round cut diamonds, totalling 1.55cts. The trifurcating ring shoulders integrate with the main setting and amalgamate to form a stranded ring shank. This vintage diamond ring has been independently tested using state of the art technology (Niton XL2 Analyzer) and verified as platinum. This impressive 1960s ring is supplied with an IDGL diamond grading report certificate for the feature stone, in addition to an IDGL diamond grading report card for the supporting stones. A vintage diamond cocktail ring is a refined statement piece, ideal for milestone occasions such as anniversaries, landmark birthdays or retirement. Its bold elegance makes it perfect...
