Description

This Compact Inlaid Mahogany Cabinet is not only very decorative but also extremely versatile. Standing on bracket feet, the exterior is decorated with inlaid lines and quadrant fan inlay throughout. A good sized storage area is revealed upon opening the panelled door, along with useful additional storage in the free running drawer. The Mahogany is of a good rich hue rich contrasting so sharply with the inlaid decoration. With the polished brass handles working so well with the timber too. The decent quality timber adds a good weight to the piece, aiding stability. The addition of a backstand also stops anything rolling off the back of the top too. This little cabinet could be used by the bed, or with a lamp on it at the side of the sofa or indeed could be used in so many other areas of the home.
