Description

Pair of English 18th Century Antique Stone Head Beam Supports A fabulous, large pair of Georgian antique hand carved stone heads of bearded men one with a crown of ivy. They are original, English 18th century antique stone beam supports, they still have a good amount of stone behind the heads, so they could be built back in easily. They are both in wonderful condition with the sandstone deeply hand carved and nicely weathered. Rare to find in such good original condition nowadays. They are English and date to around 1750. Dimensions Height: 32cm (12.70") Width: 26cm (10.32") Depth: 46cm (18.25")
