Description

A generously sized double pine wardrobe, dating from around 1910. It features two drawers at the base, complete with original wooden knobs. This piece is full of charm, with detailed reeding and elegant craftsmanship - beautiful, yet highly practical. In very good condition for its age. Inside, the hanging space offers a depth of 20.5", easily accommodating large hangers - perfect for coats, suits, and other bulky items. The wardrobe completely dismantles for transport, so should go up the tightest of staircase. Just send over your postcode and we'll provide a quote for delivery and reassembly. I handle most deliveries personally across the country. Currently in bare wood, this piece is available: As it is; £1000.00 Waxed finish: £1125.00 Both options include a brand new brass hanging rail. Shelving can be added on request. Dimensions: Height: 76" Width: 59" Depth: 25" Internal Hanging Depth: 20.5"
