Description

An antique early 18th century oak side table. The side table has a moulded cornice top, which opens on a hinge to reveal a spacious interior. Below, a single long drawer is fitted with two brass knobs and features neat panelling. The table has a shaped apron and an under-tier shelf for additional storage. Raised on turned legs, it combines classic design with functional features. Item Ref; M-5981 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 70cm / Width - 87.5cm / Depth - 51.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear, including age-related marks and scratches. The top of the table shows splitting, and there are signs of historic woodworm, which has been treated and is no longer present. Despite these imperfections, the table remains sturdy and functional. Our experienced carpenter meticulously inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection. This ensures that every piece you purchase from us is ready to be seamlessly incorporated into your home. To provide you with a comprehensive understanding of the item's condition, we kindly request that you take a moment to thoroughly review all the accompanying photos. These images...
