Description

This Three Drawer Mahogany Cabinet offers good storage in a surprisingly elegant form. Standing on tapered legs that end with a spade toe, a good-sized cupboard is accessed by the panelled door. The three free running drawers, embellished to the fronts with a Kingwood inlaid banding, with polished brass handles, add further storage to the piece. The upstand to the top ensures nothing can roll off the back. This piece can be used in so many areas of the home to provide useful additional storage.
