Description

A very good quality Early 19th Century Regency period boat shaped canterbury in delightfully well-figured warm coloured mahogany dating from circa 1820. With dipped top and four dividers, the central divider features a very useful pierced carry handle. It has a single frieze drawer and brass drop handles and is raised on elegant turned legs terminating in its original brass cup castors. A really attractive good quality piece and a good size; it would make a wonderful newspaper stand or magazine rack. Construction/Wood: Mahogany Condition Report: Good condition. Wear and marks commensurate with age. Dimensions: Width: 51cm Depth: 38cm Height: 53cm Drawer Internal: 8cm High x 42cm Wide x 31cm Deep
