Description

This is a stunning antique oak mantel clock crafted by Jas Whitelaw of Edinburgh. It boasts a single fusee movement housed within a solid oak case. The clock's face is an 11-inch cream dial adorned with black Roman numerals, providing a classic and elegant look. The dial is protected by a brass bezel-edged glazed door, ensuring durability and style. The polished oak case displays a rich hue and beautiful grain, enhancing the overall sophistication of the piece. This clock represents the refined craftsmanship of its maker and is a highly sought-after item steeped in history.
