Description

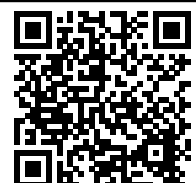

A superb quality small silver tazza formed as a Chippendale style tripod table with pie crust top. The central stem is ornately knopped and the legs and claw feet cast to perfectly replicate the carved details. The top is dished with fluting from the edge to the centre and the rim has a finely stepped and reeded pie crust shape. Hallmarked for Sheffield 1915 and made by the high quality makers the Goldsmiths & Silversmiths Co. Ltd. It also bears a retail mark for their Regent Street premises and a registered design number Rd 532732. It measures 9.5cm (3 3/4") high and 11.2cm (4 3/8") wide and weighs 101g / 3.3ozt. In excellent condition with no damage or repair and minor handling wear only.
