Description

This antique 20th century oak display cabinet is a well-crafted piece of good quality, combining functionality with timeless design. It stands on classic turned legs and features a beautifully glazed upper section with two doors, opening to reveal four adjustable shelves—ideal for displaying cherished items. Below the display area is a two-door cupboard with solid blind panels, offering additional concealed storage. The front is tastefully decorated with intricate beading, adding texture and visual interest to the piece. Crafted from oak, the cabinet showcases a gorgeous grain and warm colour throughout. It retains all its original brass handles and fittings, further enhancing its authentic character. In good condition, this cabinet is both a practical and elegant addition to any traditional interior.
