Description

A very pretty English solid sterling silver dish. It is hallmarked for Birmingham 1967 with the makers mark being that of Stanley G Morris. It has been beautifully hand made being plannished with a rose design to its centre, note this shows the three stages, bud, blossom, and death. It is in superb condition being free from dings splits holes and repairs. It measures approx. 4.5 inches (11.2cm) across and weighs 68 grams. A very pretty very unusual piece.
