Description

Ink wash preparatory sketch inscribed to the verso Sunderland Front. Signed and dated 1960. The drawing was done three years prior to an oil of the same scene date 1963 titled Roker Beach that sold Christie's 2011 for £301,250. The drawing depicts people on the beach dog walking and playing with the infrastructure of the Tyne shipyards on the horizon. It was this juxtaposition Lowry looked to convey.
