Description

A good example of an antique copper bulkhead lantern dating from the late 19th / early 20th Century. It is rectangular in shape with a caddy top and brass name plaque for "Limehouse Lamp Co". It has two glazed side panels and a glazed hinged front door. Presumably it would have originally contained a small oil burner or candle. The door and the top has pierced detail for ventilation and there is a small brass loop for hanging on the back. It is in good original condition. It is not without some knocks and surface marks and the copper has tarnished over time but it has a lovely patina. There are a few small dents here and there and a couple of old repairs but no major damages. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK Delivery £10
