Description

A large and good quality glass scent bottle with solid silver top. It is a very pretty example engraved with a floral and swag design. It has a solid silver hinged top and collar and it comes with its original ground glass stopper. It is hallmarked on the top and collar for Birmingham, 1919 and the maker Charles S Green & Co. It is in very good condition for its age. The silver top is in excellent condition and the hinge is strong. There are no cracks or damages to the glass or stopper and overall it displays beautifully.
