Description

A distinguished Edwardian mahogany sideboard by the renowned London makers Maple & Co, featuring an elegant inverted breakfront form and superb decorative detailing. The raised ledge back is supported above a finely carved gadrooned edge, leading into three frieze drawers and twin pedestal cupboards beneath. What truly elevates this piece are the exceptional hand-painted polychrome panels, each depicting neoclassical figure studies in soft, refined tones — a hallmark of Maple & Co's sophisticated design sensibility. The richly figured mahogany, combined with these painted vignettes, gives the sideboard a refined, gallery-quality presence. Ideal for formal dining rooms or statement hallway settings, this piece balances utility with exceptional artistry.
