Description

This breathtaking Antique mourning ring features a Pearl halo with a hair locket centre, beautifully textured shoulders and black enamelling, modelled in 18ct Yellow Gold. The back of the ring is fully engraved inside, reading "Dorothy Hensman, Ob: 6 Aug 1828 ae. 72." Ob is the Latin abbreviation for obitus (death), and ae is short for aetatis or aetas (years or time of life). This beautiful quality and highly collectable ring would make a great addition to any collection.
