Description

A handsome late 18th-century George III period mahogany tripod table. It features a well-figured single piece of solid mahogany for the tilt-top circular top, above a turned baluster-form column. This fine quality Georgian table is raised on well-drawn outswept cabriole legs that terminate in pad feet, retaining a good original colour and patination. The tilt-top includes the original catch and dates to circa 1780. Height 70cm (27.6in) Diameter 85cm (33.5in)
