Description

This well-drawn GEORGIAN SUNDERLAND LUSTRE JUG dates from circa 1830. It is decorated with a transfer prints entitled of a TALL SHIP in Full Sail, beneath which is the verse: 'Majestically slow before the breeze The tall ship marches on the azure seas in silent pomp she cleave the watery plain The pride and wonder of the billow main' To the other side is a transfer print entitled FARMERS' ARMS. Beneath the spout is a beautiful and freely painted flower amongst foliage. The yellow band forms a nice contrast with the pink lustre. There is an old start crack to the side and foot rim which is stable. There is an old, thin surface chip to the lip and a shrinkage line where the spout joins the body. This has occurred during the firing. There is no restoration. Height: 7.5 inches (19 cm) Express delivery within the UK is included. We ship Worldwide and are happy to quote for Overseas Delivery on request.
