Description

A handsome pair of 19th century Victorian parlour chairs in walnut. Classic balloon back form with a central carved rosette detail over seats reupholstered in a stylish art deco-style fabric and raised on turned front legs. A great looking pair of great quality chairs — ideal for use in a bedroom, hallway, or as occasional seating in a living space. Presented in very good antique condition with only some characterful patina to the frames. Structurally all solid, clean and ready to place in the home. English, circa 1870.
