Description

A Regency period ebonised and parcel gilt tri-form étagère. The étagère has a superb form with three curved shelves joined by three scrolled pillars, each with fluted gilt detail throughout, scroll foot and topped with a gilt flower. The étagère is in an untouched original condition with scuffs and marks throughout and fading to the gilt and finish in areas (please see photographs). There is some movement in the piece when rocked, however this movement lessens significantly when weight is added to the shelves. The joints of the shelves themselves remain firm. An attractive and functional piece.
