Description

A particularly fine quality mid 19th century mahogany work table of rectangular form, the hinged top veneered in richly figured flame mahogany with a deep warm patina, opening to reveal a divided, lined interior. A beautifully formed bone escutcheon retains its original working lock and key, sitting above a finely shaped apron, all raised on attractively ring turned legs. A practical and decorative piece — equally suited as a small side table, bedside, hall table or sewing table. Presented in very good antique condition with some minor surface marks and age-related wear. Structurally sound, clean and ready to place in the home. English, circa 1850. H: 73 W: 52 D: 40 cm
