Description

An exceptional and large 19th-century Chinese elm mortar featuring a highly refined silhouette and wonderful original character. Its generous scale makes it a beautiful statement piece for use as a unique planter, a distinctive table base, or a standout accent in a hallway or garden room. The mortar is defined by its solid, hand-carved construction from a single piece of dense, premium elm wood. It retains its authentic original finish, showcasing the natural textures, deep grain patterns, and rugged history characteristic of classic 19th-century utilitarian objects. The piece is in excellent condition. It is ready for immediate use in the home. Dimensions: * Width: 39 cm * Depth: 34 cm * Height: 33 cm
