Description

Large French Art Nouveau Mantel Clock and Garniture This impressive clock set features a woman and child holding a floral branch with a bird perched above. A striking centrepiece, the figures are cast in bronzed spelter and stand on a beautifully variegated marble adorned with gilt ormolu. The clock face has a pretty painted dial with Arabic numerals and a brass bezel. It retains the original hands. The maker's name A. CARRE from Niort is marked on the dial. The eight day movement strikes on the hour and the half hour and the movement is in working order. The matching garniture / candelabra each hold five candles and stand on gilt ormolu feet. The stamp 'Fabrication Française Paris Made In France' is on the woman's dress. All in very good condition with only one small repair to the branch held by the child. Key supplied. Clock Height: 56 cm Width: 39 cm Depth: 21 cm Candelabra Height: 52 cm Diametre: 30 cm Circa: 1880 Shipping will be £150 for delivery to an address in England, France, Germany and Italy.
